

Table of Contents

Foreword

A Message from the Chief Engineer

Acknowledgments

Chapter 1 – U.S. Public Health Service Engineers

- Mission, Responsibilities and Challenge
- Engineers in the PHS
- Mission of PHS Engineers
- The Role of the Engineer in PHS
- Responsibilities of the PHS Engineer
- The Challenge to Excel

Chapter 2 – The History of PHS Engineers

- Introduction
- The Marine Era
- The Epidemic Era
- The Sanitation Era
- The War Era
- The Post-War Sanitation Era
- The Environmental Pollution Era
- The Environmental Health Era
- Looking to the Future
- The Engineer Professional Advisory Committee (EPAC)
- The Chief Engineer

Chapter 3 – Engineers in the Public Health Service

- Introduction
- Part 1. Engineering Roles by Function
- Part 2. Engineering Roles within Some Specific Agencies

Chapter 4 – Career Planning

- Introduction
- Part 1. Developing Your Career Plan
- Part 2. Six Steps to Career Planning
  - Step 1: Taking Charge
  - Step 2: Self Assessment/Life Concerns
  - Step 3: Assessing Your Professional Interests in PHS
  - Step 4: Career Investigation/Information Gathering
  - Step 5: Career Decision and Goal Setting
  - Step 6: strategies for Changing Positions within PHS

- Part 3. Technical Cs. Management Career Paths
- Part 4. Recommendations for Moving Up the Career Ladder
- References

Chapter 5 – Personnel Systems

- Introduction
- The Civil Service System
- The Commissioned Corps System
- Assignments: Civil Services and Commissioned Corps

Chapter 6 – Professional Registration and Certification

- What is Professional Registration?
- State Requirements for Engineer Registration
- State Requirement for Architect Registration
- Government Position of Registration
- EPAC Position on Registration
- How to Obtain Registration
- What is Certification?

Chapter 7

- Introduction
- Government Training Programs
- Private Sector

Appendix A – Guidelines for Preparing a Curriculum Vitae or Resume

Appendix B – Engineer Awards

Appendix C – Information Resources

Appendix D – Glossary of Acronyms

Appendix E – EPAC Charter and Bylaws

Appendix F – Bibliography